Celebrating the 40th Anniversary of Humanae Vitae
30 Years of Education Program Support from Creighton University School of Medicine

June 11-14, 2008
The Augustinian Conference Center, ROME, ITALY

Early Registration only $199!

Participants will learn about the latest in women's health science and reproductive technology. Prominent professionals will offer lectures that address the impact of Assisted-Reproductive-Technology (ART) and its foundational principles in society. The Creighton Model Fertility Care (TM) System, along with techniques developed for surgical, medical, perinatal, and educational applications will be illustrated.
